What are you charging? I need to know if anyone is going to be leaving our building drunk, not kidding.

Will it be more than 1 or 2 beers? Just trying to cover our ass if someone leaves drunk and gets into a awful automobile accident.

I am just learning that your event is here at CBS. Am I correct? I need to understand like Scotch in the Sukkah what the plans are as I will need to get this under our insurance.

Please whomever is putting this together needs to reach out to me when I am back the first week in April how you are managing the liquor.

Thanks,

Michael
