

FHJC Coffee House goes

LIVE!

Performers, warm up your vocal cords, flex
your fingers, tie on your tap shoes...
and toss the CDs.

Get your registration in by

(Performance: Saturday night, January 26, 2013)

Turn this page over for everything you need to know about takin' it live!

What will YOU do with five minutes on stage?

The Coffee House at the Forest Hills Jewish Center is an almost-open-mike night. Its purpose is to give FHJC members a chance to showcase their talents. This is a show, NOT a contest, and it's all for fun — talent is not being assessed! However, note that a limited number of performance slots are available, so the deadline is FIRM! Don't dawdle!

Things you need to know:

- All performance materials must be submitted with your registration form; we can't accept any forms without that information. Selections will be approved for venue appropriateness. Remember: "Keep it cool, you're in shul!" (And please, no "Stairway to Heaven" and nothing from "Annie.")
- NEW AND IMPORTANT: This year we're going live — that is, all our accompaniment will be with live musicians. So, if you're a singer and need piano or guitar accompaniment, let us know. Let's say you're a guitarist and would like some drum support, let us know that, too. BUT, you must let us know on your registration form!
- Each act will be allotted 5 minutes maximum. No kidding. A timing check is done at the run-through on Sunday, January 20, 2013. You must attend the run-through.
- We also need support staff! Let us know if you want to help behind the scenes.

Complete the form below and return it to the FHJC office by November 2, 2012. This is a firm deadline; no registrations will be accepted after that date. A registration fee of $10.00 per performer (to cover production costs) must be submitted with your registration.
