

The holiday season is over until Chanukah, and the Men's Club has a bunch of events planned between now and then. We're taking a break from the baseball playoffs to let you know about them.

First up is our biennial political forum, scheduled for this Sunday, Oct. 23, at 10 a.m. Montgomery County Executive Marc Elrich and Republican challenger Reardon Sullivan will appear separately and take questions submitted from the audience. Breakfast will be served. This event is co-sponsored by our Sisterhood.

Then Part II of our health fair will take place via Zoom on Wednesday, Oct. 26. Dr. Joanne Crantz, a B'nai Israel member who practiced geriatric medicine for more than 30 years, will be our speaker. To attend and get the Zoom link, please register at <https://www.bnaiisraelcong.org/event/agingsuccessfully>.

On Thursday, Oct. 27, our shlichah, Uriel Lin, will speak about the upcoming Israeli elections with Yarden Shiri, shlichah at Agudas Achim in Alexandria, and Ido Naaman, shaliach at B'nai Tzedek in Potomac. A pub quiz will follow. Desserts and Israeli wines will be served. The event, co-sponsored with our Sisterhood, begins at 7:30 p.m. Admission is free but please register by Monday, Oct. 24, to alanisenberg\_rph@yahoo.com.

We've had to postpone our hike scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 30. We'll do it on another day.

The following month is our next ROMEO dinner, scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 3, at La Limena Grill, 1093 Rockville Pike, Rockville. If you want to attend, please RSVP to Mark Berlin at berlin.potomac@gmail.com.

Finally our next Men's Club meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 13, after minyan. All club members are invited to attend.
