

2011 Men's Club Golf Outing

Welcome to the 2011 TI MC Golf Outing -

We will be playing this year at the beautiful Kyber Run Course located close to New Albany and Gahanna and approximately a 35 minute drive from Bexley. Please arrive at the course this Monday morning, May 30, 2011 no later than 7:30am.

The address is : Kyber Run Golf Course
5261 Mink St.
Johnstown, Ohio 43031

phone 1-740-967-1404

This year we will be playing as teams who have been predetermined by our official team committee. The teams are as follows:

Scoring

The team with the lowest score wins, but,

For each 9 holes these rules must be followed:

- A) The Team Leader's score may be counted up to 4 times per 9 holes
- B) The 2nd player's score must be counted at least 3 times per 9 holes
- C) The 3rd player's score must be counted at least 2 times per 9 holes

All members of the team with the overall lowest overall score will receive prizes.

Now, to take some of the pressure off of our players, we are selling options to take legitimate mulligans. Mulligans are available to rehit any shot you don't like from the same position you 1st hit the ball with no penalty stroke. There is no limit to the number of mulligans you may buy, but you must use your own mulligans. They are not transferable to other players.

The nominal cost for mulligans is as follows:

- 3 mulligans per round - $10
- 7 mulligans per round - $20
- 10 mulligans per round - $25
- 15 mulligans per round - $30

TAB A

The cost of the prizes will be defrayed by participants purchasing mulligan tokens.

The green fees and cart usage is only $36 per man. There will be sandwiches including vegetarian and beverages available for purchase in the club house.

Do you know about the Kiddush Club?

Your Men's Club has stepped up to take care of the L'Chaim table at Tifereth's Shabbat and holiday celebrations. Funded by donations from a small number of generous patrons and the parents of B'nei Mitzvah, the Kiddush Club provides beverages for the toasts that celebrate our simchas.

This greatly appreciated service needs your assistance. Men's Club is seeking donations to the Kiddush Club to keep the L'Chaim tradition going strong. Any amount will help; as you write your dues check, please consider adding one chai or two chai or more - To Life!

TAB E

Quiz Nite

Rules of the Game

Tables compete against each other to get the most points.

- Points are earned with correct answers to questions. The table with the most points wins.
- In the event of a tie, a tiebreaker round will be added with only the tied teams playing.

Rules of the Game

- Each team appoints a secretary to record your answers on the answer sheets supplied to you. Each team also appoints a gopher to bring answer sheets up to the Quizmaster's table.
- There are two written rounds. There will be nine oral or visual rounds.

Rules of the Game

The first written round is on your table already. You have until the end of the second oral round to hand in your answers.

- Announcements will be made so that you can get your answers in on time.
- The second written round will be put on your table at the break.
- The second written round answers will be due after the second oral round following the break

Rules of the Game

At the beginning of each round, the secretary takes the appropriately labeled answer sheet on the table, and writes in the table number.

- The Quizmaster will announce the title of the round and how many questions there will be.
- Your team has 30 seconds to decide whether to play a Joker.

Jokers

A joker round will give you double points for every correct answer and no penalty for incorrect answers.

Rules of the Game

- If you decide to play a joker, bring the card up and place it in your team's slot on the Quizmaster's table.
- Joker cards may only be played in the first eight oral rounds
- Questions will be read aloud and displayed on the screen.
- Pay attention since once we go on to the next question we will not go back.

Rules of the Game

- The secretary writes down the answers on the answer sheet.
 - After the last question has been read, you will have about two minutes to go over your answers and bring them up to the table; the Quizmaster will tell you when they are due.

Rules of the Game

- The gopher will place the answers in your team's slot. When all the answer sheets are in, the correct answers will be read, and the next round will be announced.
 - If your answers come in past the deadline, your team receives no points for that round.
 - If the scorers cannot read an answer, it will be marked wrong

Rules of the Game

- As the Quizmaster reads questions, the judge and her assistants will calculate scores.
 - Scores will then be posted/announced between subsequent rounds.

Notes about Quizmaster . . .

Quizmaster is human and may (although unlikely) make a mistake.

- If your team wishes to contest an answer, write it down on a piece of paper (provided on your table) and bring it to the Quizmaster before the next round.
 - We will make every effort to verify whether the answer is correct or should be changed.

Notes about Quizmaster . . .

- If you yell at the Quizmaster or Judge, throw chairs (or anything else) at them or protest in an unsportsman-like manner, we will not consider your request.
 - The Judge's and/or Quizmaster's decisions are final.

Most Important . . .

- NO CHEATING!!
- Cellphones, laptops, PDAs, etc. must be put away during the competition.
- Do not eavesdrop on the nearby teams—unless you think you can do it without getting caught.

Most Important . . .

- Remember, this is a game! HAVE FUN!

Tifereth Israel Men's Club hosted dinner in the Sukkah.

Tifereth Israel celebrates Sukkot for all ages

Tifereth Israel offered a family friendly dinner on erev Sukkot. Many families with young children attended and activities were provided for all the children.

During Chal Hamoed, the Men's Club of Tifereth Israel hosted their 2nd annual five course Sukkot dinner.

For Kabbalat Shabbat Tifereth Israel hosted YAD, the Young Adult Division of Columbus for "Suds in the Sukkah." Young members came together for services, followed by a traditional Shabbat dinner generously sponsored by Tifereth Israel. At the conclusion of the YAD dinner, everyone was joined by the Inclusion Service as they had an omeg in the Sukkah. Tifereth Israel's Inclusion Service consists of a short service that is offered the first Friday of every month, designed for families and individuals with special needs, and is open to the entire community.

Tifereth Israel's high school youth program, BUCKUSY, also held a Shabbat program in the Sukkah called Kab & Kab where they held a pot luck dinner at one of their member's homes.

On Shabbat morning Tifereth Israel's youth Shabbat programs, YPS and Jr. Congregation enjoyed pizza in the hut for Kiddush, and preschoolers joined them as well. On Sunday, all of the
